

Drawing & Painting Courses

Weekend Workshops

There will be a mixture of subjects throughout the year for all. Whatever your level of ability I will help you to improve your skills with: pastels, lino printing, figures, portraiture and mixed media and more variety of courses. These will be small and friendly groups allowing for more personal attention. There is no need to bring materials, the studio is fully equipped with easels and a range of materials including paper and paints or pastels. The weekend workshops offer a mixture of interesting subjects and a chance to try different media. All courses include demonstrations and are ideally suited to beginners, portfolio preparation (with a high intake into college) and more advanced students.
